AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

This invaluable remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, has attained a celebrity from its remarkable cures, never equalled by any other medicine before. Other preparations have shown themselves palliatives and sometimes effected notable cures, but none has ever so fully won the confidence of every community where it is known. After years of trial in every climate, the results have indisputably shown it to possess a mastery over this dangerous class of diseases, which could not fail to attract the attention of Physicians, Patients and the public at large.

See the statements, not of obscure individuals, but of men who are known and respected throughout the country.

The resident Physician and Surgeon, Doct. VALENTINE MOTT, of New York City, says:

"It gives me pleasure to certify the value and efficacy of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which I consider peculiarly adapted to cure diseases of the throat and lungs."

Dr. PERKINS, the venerable President of the Vermont Medical College, one of the eminently learned physicians in the country, writes, the Cherry Pectoral is extensively used in this section, where it has shown unmistakeable evidence of its happy effects upon pulmonary diseases.

The Rev. JNO. D. COCHRANE, a distinguished Clergyman of the [illegible] Church, writes to the Proprietor that he has been cured of a severe [illegible] by Cherry Pectoral. His letter [illegible] found in our circular, to be had of the Agents, and is worthy the attention of the afflicted.

The following letter from the well known Druggist at Hillsdale, Mich., one of the largest dealers in the state, relates to a case of his own observation:

HILLSDALE, Mich., Dec. 10, 1849.

Dear Sir: [illegible] on request of your Cherry Pectoral, I carried a bottle to an acquaintance of mine, who was brought [illegible] with quick consumption. He was then unable to rise from his bed. His friends believed [illegible] could be obtained for him [illegible] to give your excellent medicine [illegible] him for three weeks [illegible] my return [illegible] Four weeks from the time he began [illegible] medicine, he was at work [illegible]

[illegible] your Pectoral [illegible] successful, but [illegible]

Yours truly, G. W. UNDERWOOD.

Prepared and sold by JAMES C. AYER, Practical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Agents in the following places: Bangor, LADD & INGRAHAM, GEORGE W. EMERSON, A. P. GUILD, and G. W. HOLDEN, Bucksport, [illegible] Belfast, [illegible] Oldtown, [illegible] Ellsworth, [illegible] and by the Druggists generally throughout the state. [illegible] 3maw&w3m

Wilder's Patent SALAMANDER SAFES

20 STATE STREET, Corner of Merchant's Row.

SECURED AGAINST GUNPOWDER

Warranted not to Injure Books or Papers by Dampness.

THESE are the only Safes (WILDER'S PATENT) that have in every instance preserved their contents when exposed to large fires, like the burning of the Tribune printing office in New York city, and many others, too numerous to mention.

The above Safes are manufactured and for sale by JOHN E. WILDER, Boston, and for sale in Bangor, at the manufacturers prices, by FISKE & DALE.

☞ The following letter from the Superintendent of the Maine Telegraph Company, is another proof of the superiority of JOHN E. WILDER'S Safe over all others:—

BANGOR, Oct 2[illegible], 1849.

John E. Wilder, Esq.—

Dear Sir—The Safe I purchased of you was exposed to a great degree of heat at the burning of the Telegraph Office, in this city. It was in the fire six hours; the books and papers were uninjured, and the damage to the Safe very slight, although it fell from the second story to the basement of the building. The little repairs necessary to the Safe have been made, and we shall not need to return it. It is still as good as new.

Respectfully yours, JAS. E[illegible]

KITCHEN & HENDERSON'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE.

THIS article has been before the public nearly five years, and the proprietor is prepared to say that for REMOVING DANDRUFF from the scalp, RESTORING HAIR WHERE FALLEN OFF TEMPORARILY, and giving it a BEAUTIFUL SOFTNESS AND GLOSS, CANNOT BE EXCELLED. The basis of this Preservative is a pure vegetable Oil, extracted from a plant found growing luxuriantly in the Western States, and which possesses, in a remarkable degree, the essential properties requisite for REPRODUCING AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, by acting upon and reviving its glands or roots—Those who faithfully apply this Preservative, will be surprised at finding how silk-like and glossy it renders the Hair, while it clears the scalp of scurf or dandruff, and affords the most agreeable sensation. It has already been extensively used, and in every instance has given perfect satisfaction.

REASONS FOR USING THIS PRESERVATIVE.

1. It is a very pretty, CLEAN article, and has an agreeable perfume.
2. It is put up in a very convenient form, and at a very reasonable price.
3. Acting as a stimulant, it affords relief to the Head-ache.
4. It gives to hard brashy Hair a desirable moisture and softness.
5. It promptly arrests the falling off of the Hair where that evil has commenced, and promotes the growth of new Hair. In fine, it does all for the Hair that any preparation for restoring and improving this ornament of the head can possibly do.

To the Hon. Judge of the District Court for the Eastern District, to be held at Bangor in and for the County of Penobscot and State of Maine, on the fourth Tuesday of May next.

JOSEPH H. HAYWARD, of Boston, in the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, guardian of his children, Harriet S. Hayward, Catharine D. Hayward and Josephine Hayward, minors under the age of twenty-one years, duly appointed by the Judge of Probate for said County of Suffolk, respectfully represents, that his said minor children and wards are seized and possessed of certain real estate and interest in real estate situate in Bangor, in said County of Penobscot, being lots number eight of [illegible] according to Park Holland's survey of Bangor, except such lots as have already been sold therefrom—and that it would be for the benefit of his said wards that the same should be disposed of and the proceeds thereof put out at interest. And he further represents, that it would be for the interest of said wards and all concerned to have said lands sold at private sale from time to time. Wherefore your said petitioner prays that Albert W. Paine, of Bangor aforesaid, may be appointed and authorized by your Hon. Court to sell and convey the interests of his said wards in all or any part of said premises at private sale, as to him may seem fit and proper, agreeably to the provisions of statute in such case made and provided.

STATE OF MAINE.

PENOBSCOT, SS.—To the several Sheriffs of our Counties of Penobscot, York, Cumberland, Lincoln, Kennebec, Oxford, Somerset, Hancock, Washington, Waldo, Piscataquis, Franklin and Aroostook, or either of their Deputies, Greeting.

WE command you to attach the goods or estate of Charles Perley who is now out of this State, and of Woodstock, in the Province of New Brunswick, and Ira Fish, of Patten, in the County of Penobscot, former copartners in trade under the firm of Perley & Fish, to the value of Seventy-five dollars, and summon the said defendants (if they may be found in your precinct) to appear before our Justices of our District Court for the Eastern District, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the fourth Tuesday of May next, then and there in our said Court to answer unto Ivory Robinson, of Machias, in the County of Washington, in a plea of the case for that the said defendants, at Bangor, in Penobscot County, on the 24th day of July, A. D. 1847, by their promissory note of that date, by them subscribed, for value received promised one Isaac Berry to pay him or order the sum of thirty-seven dollars and sixty-nine cents in sixty days from date, with lawful interest therefor after said sixty days, until paid, and the said Isaac Berry thereafterwards on the same day indorsed and delivered the said note to the Plff. by reason and in consideration whereof the said Defts. became liable and promised the Plff. to pay him the contents of the said note according to the tenor thereof. And the Plff. avers that the said sixty days have long since elapsed,—Yet, though often requested, said Defts. have not paid said sum nor any part thereof, but neglect and refuse so to do to the damage of the said Plff. (as he says) in the sum of Seventy-five dollars, which shall then and there be made to appear with other due damages. And have you there this Writ with your doings therein.

THE Great American Remedy

FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all diseases of the Chest and Lungs, has now been so long before the public, and its reputation so well established, both from recommendations of Physicians, and from the invariable testimony of its inestimable virtues by all who have used it, that its sale has become immensely large, and it must very soon supercede the use of every other article used for the same and kindred complaints. As a family medicine, it can never be outdone. In double the usual dose, it almost invariably vomits the child in the first stages of croup, and relieves and quiets it immediately. For quite a number of years it has been the favorite and universal remedy in all the cases named, of one of the most celebrated and skillful Physicians.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON,

No. 22 State Street, Boston.

IN 1840 the subscriber was appointed by the Commissioner of Patents, Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th Sec. of Act of '37.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models, and adopted a more expeditious mode of sending them to the Patent Office, whereby a Patent may be procured about six weeks earlier, he continues to forward them free of expense—to prepare Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents, and to render advice on legal and scientific matters respecting the same. Patents secured in Europe and other countries.

By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of verbally explaining their inventions, and of consulting in respect to them; matters, in general, of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims. The experience of sixteen years practice, an extensive collection of rare works, decisions, &c. on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford to inventors, desirous of procuring Patents, assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult of attainment.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMOND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

FOR Coughs, Colds, Consumptions,

AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE LUNGS.

The VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, having been tested by the experience of thousands for the last twenty years, [illegible] by eminent physicians and others of the highest respectability, as superior to any other preparation.

From the Editor of the Burlington Sentinel, May 17, 1850.—"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam, prepared by Reed & Cutler, of Boston, has become the most popular medicine ever put forth for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption. It is worthy of the high reputation it has attained [illegible] immensity of its annual sales.—Messrs. Reed & Cutler are above quackery, depending alone upon the intrinsic virtues of their medicinal preparations for their disposal. [illegible] is so plentiful that it gives us real pleasure to offer the tribute of our recommendation to a medicine we know to be of real merit."

An eminent physician writes us,—"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, or pulmonary affections of every kind, and with confidence recommend it as superior to any other preparation used for the above complaints."

Nov. 1, 1850.—New Certificates, to almost any extent, might be added if deemed necessary, but the proprietors feel that the article has become so universally well known, and its virtues so generally acknowledged by physicians and others, as to make it unnecessary to offer at this time, further proof of the merits of this highly popular article.

☞ BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS AND IMITATIONS, such as CARTER'S COMPOUND PULMONARY BALSAM, AMERICAN PULMONARY BALSAM, and others, in part bearing the name! Inquire for the article by its whole name, the

and see that it has the written signature of Wm. [illegible] Cutler upon a yellow label, on the blue wrapper. Each bottle and seal is stamped "Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam."

Prepared by REED & CUTLER, Importers and Wholesale Dealers in Medicines, Paints, Chemicals and Dye Stuffs, 34 India Street, Boston, and sold by Druggists, Apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. For particulars and recommendations, see the pamphlet accompanying each bottle.—Price 50 cents.

TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1851.

☞ The recent proceedings in the New York Senate in which twelve loco members resigned their seats in order to prevent the passage of the bill for the enlargement of the Erie Canal, and thereby defeating the passage of some two hundred and fifty bills which had been prepared and perfected for final passage, and necessarily imposing the necessity of an extra session of the legislature, is another instance of the tendency of the times in disregarding the plain requirements of law and the usual and necessary obligations imposed upon position and relation, and of risking everything to carry out a personal notion. Men are becoming uneasy at the slow and sure progress of the operation of law and true constitutional tests and correction; legislators must practically defeat legislation not by the regular mode of voting against laws they disapprove, and allowing the majority to rule, but by legislative strategy, or by sudden abandonment of official station, or openly skulking away from the post of duty, preventing the majority from acting on public measures. Another step in this direction is where the citizen becomes restive under laws legally passed and so impatient of their repeal or modification that he determines to take the entire power into his own hands and thus in fact to deny the force of all laws which do not suit his taste. Movements of this kind may seem at the first blush, and doubtless do seem to some minds, to partake of the heroic martyr spirit, and in this view there is something exciting in it which bears it forward with a zest.

But it should be remembered that such movements are revolutionary in their character and tendency, and contrary to the whole spirit, scope, intent and meaning of our form of government and the essential elements of all worthy patriotism. Our government is erected upon the principle that the majority of the free male citizens, expressing their opinion according to modes of their own prescribing, shall rule. To this principle all are bound, to adhere until some other principle shall be legally recognized and established by due course of law or through the upheavings of revolution. But the country is not in a state of revolution, nor is there occasion for a resort to that as a remedy in this country.

The true course then for the legislator is, to discharge his duties according to the spirit and intent of the Constitution and the laws, by making honorable efforts to render every law perfect, and if he cannot succeed to his mind to vote against such laws and leave the majority to rule. The course of the citizen is equally plain: to exercise his legal rights in a legal way, and to bow to the action of the majority in the spirit of true patriotism, instead of seeking some excuse to defeat the majority by nullification, resistance or revolution.

We have had occasion, heretofore, to remark that genuine locofocoism dares do anything or omit anything to effect its purposes, relying upon the action of the whig party to set matters right when they become too grievous to be borne, and too destructive to be endured, or too hazardous to be continued. We think the recent course of the loco Senators in New York is a case in point. They were unwilling to abide by the wholesome provisions that the majority should rule. The appeal is now made to the people. The result will doubtless be to unite the whigs in New York by bringing them to a practical acknowledgement of the great principles which lie at the foundation of our political institutions and to which we have referred, rather than following that delusive idea that each citizen has the right of resisting every law which does not square with his notions of right. The maintenance and support of the Constitution and the laws will soon be the rallying cry of the great mass of the whigs of New York and in which a successful appeal will be made to the people of that great state.

A Difference with the Democracy.

The Democratic party have contrived generally to hold together tolerably in their schemes and quite firm in their voting, but this party is now completely riven.

On the one side is the doctrine as announced by the last Bangor Democrat as follows:—

"The democracy can go and will go into the next Presidential election upon no other basis than that of a substantial adherence to the Slavery Compromises of the late Congress, and particularly, upon no other basis in respect to the Fugitive Slave Law, than that of a firm resistance to any modification which would impair its efficiency. This is the platform upon which the battle of 1852 is to be fought; no well informed man can doubt for a moment."

In opposition to this is the doctrine of the democracy of Massachusetts as announced by Mr. Rantoul as follows:—

"The language of the clause in the Constitution relating to fugitives from service, addresses itself to the States, and that Congress has no power, under the Constitution, to legislate for the surrender of fugitive slaves." Mr. Rantoul says the democratic party must take this ground, and that it is in accordance with the old democratic theory that there is a constant danger of a continual accumulation of power by the general government.

It is a little unfortunate for the Massachusetts locos that the U. S. Supreme Court, which by the Constitution is made a judge of its meaning, has decided that the language of the Constitution, in relation to fugitives from labor, is not addressed to the States.

Amidst these contradictions it is appropriate to turn to the position of the Whig administration regarding these matters, avoiding the two extremes and letting the whole rest upon future experience and the wishes and demands of the country. This is well set forth in the President's message, at the opening of the late session of Congress, and expresses fully and plainly his own and the unanimous opinion of all those associated with him in the executive administration of the Government, in regard to what are called the Adjustment or Compromise measures of last session. That opinion is, that those measures should be regarded in principle as a final settlement of the dangerous and exciting subjects which they embrace, that though they were not free from imperfections, yet, in their mutual dependence and connexion, they formed a system of compromise the most conciliatory and best for the entire country that could be obtained from conflicting sectional interests and opinions, and that therefore they should be adhered to, until time and experience should demonstrate the necessity of further legislation to guard against evasion or abuse.

PREMATURE MOVEMENTS OF THE CUBAN INVADERS. We learn from Savannah, says the Boston Journal, that the recent movement of the Cubanists in Georgia was premature, occasioned by a rumor that the revolt at Cuba had taken place, when the finest spirits of the Okefenokee region hastened to Savannah to tender their services to Gen. Gonzales, who is a resident of that city. Sixty-three of the party came to the Twenty Mile Station, and communicated with the city, and learning that the movement was premature, and that they had mistaken the rendezvous, they returned home to await the proper time. The balance of the company learned their mistake at Macon, and returned back.

From New Mexico.

We have dates from Santa Fe to the 4th ult. The inauguration of the new Governor, John S. Calhoun, had taken place. His inaugural address warmly eulogizes the Union and congratulates the people that the stormy contest in Congress, in which New Mexico had borne so prominent a part, has left the Union unscathed. There is no other intelligence of interest.

☞ One of our citizens who set out in his garden a small Columbia plum tree, three years previously, sold of the fruit of that tree last season five dollars worth, and had a good share of fruit from it for the use of his family. Is not this a profitable little investment? Remember then that by transplanting fruit trees now, the crop will be soon forthcoming with its pleasure and its profit. There never were any better trees here than those now to be found at Chapman's nursery.

☞ The New England Farmer states that Mr. Wm. G. Churchill of Deerfield, N. H. has had the Green Gage plum and common cherry grafted into the Pigeon cherry, on his farm, the former two and the latter three years growth, and they are both in a flourishing condition. This is something new in the way of stocks for the plum, but all such experiments are worth trying occasionally.

☞ The gentlemanly clerk of the steamer Boston gave us a view on Saturday of one of the new three cent pieces from the United States Mint. It is a very neat coin, resembling silver, and has rather a fine appearance. It is probably the first coin of this description that has ever been brought to this city. We learn that these coin are to go into general circulation on the first of May.

☞ We unintentionally neglected to thank several of our friends, the Express agents and others, for a bundle of papers received on Saturday last in advance of the mail. It is rather late to return thanks for those favors but we wish to do it as those favors were of great value to us.

☞ Mann's American Miscellany, a dashing independent and somewhat eccentric weekly newspaper—an out growth of the fancies and peculiarities of that queer compound Dr. Angier Mann, its principal editor, is now published at Skowhegan, Somerset county, by Miles P. Emery and A. T. Bickford.

☞ We would call the attention of our readers to the notice in another column of the excellent school at Farmington by A. H. Abbot. It is emphatically a family school, in which the mental, physical and moral needs of the pupil will be carefully provided for.

☞ It seems a long while since we have had a day of good weather and it will be greatly relished when it does come. A friend at our elbow offers to bet a lobster, one of Bickford's best, that the dreary stormy weather will continue until May morning. We take him un[illegible].

☞ On referring to our advertising columns, it will be seen that a meeting of the subscribers to the stock for a new steamboat are to hold a meeting at the Bangor House to-morrow evening.

☞ Fishing vessels to the amount of upwards of $70,000 changed hands in the district of Gloucester during the three months ending April 1st, 1851.

Farm School.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

Your correspondent  and myself agree that some disposition should be made of vagrant children, and habitual truants. He would send them to the House of Correction, I to a Farm School. He considers these identical, except in name. I do not. If he will look in the Revised Statutes, Chap. 178, § 6, he will see that the description of persons convicted on criminal warrant or indictment, for which Houses of Correction are provided, is essentially different from "vagrant children and habitual truants." Provision is made for their punishment, and not for their education. For degradation, not their education. But Farm Schools are for the protection and education of children who have no one to protect and educate them, as well as for the proper training of children of vicious habits. If your correspondent had directly or indirectly an interest in the welfare of children of this description, he surely would prefer to have them sent to such a school rather than to a House of Correction. Indeed, I cannot think he would have such a child sent to the House of Correction at all if he consulted its future welfare. Such a place may be better than a common jail, as there is provision for convicts to be kept at work; but for this reason only.

It is a melancholy sight to me to see lads sent to the House of Correction or Jail, as they frequently are, to come out only more hardened in depravity, only by bolder depredations to render more bitter the sorrow of their friends, if they have any, and to render more unsafe the property of the community, and some almost certainly, to lead forever a life of infamy.

But the great object, I imagine, with your correspondent, is not the form of the institution, but the expense. The allusion to "the present state of our city finances" has an awful significance. It reminds one of his pocket!

"Murder a man's family and he may brook it,
But keep your hands out of his breeches pocket," says Byron; and Byron never wrote a truer couplet. Allude to the "state of our city finances," in a manner to lead some men to suppose that something is to come from the pocket, if it be only to provide means for the security of their property from the robber, their house from the flames, or their family from the incendiary, and they will look aghast. They just about consider the allusion robbery prepense.

It is true that the expense should always be considered. If the benefit contemplated will not counterbalance the expense, the project should be abandoned. How is it in this case? If the archives of the courts are consulted I think it will be no difficult matter to find that education of lads in crime, in Houses of Correction and Jails, is quite as expensive, as it can possibly be in virtue, in a Farm School.—Justices, witnesses, juries, attorneys and jailors have to be paid, and the boys have to be fed and clothed in the bargain. At the Farm School the most serious expense of the establishment of which is in the outset, (and this need not be great,) the instructor is to be paid and the boys are to be fed and clothed! Is it so alarming after all?

It is no experiment to be tried; no Utopian scheme. Farm Schools have been established elsewhere with great success. This may be upon a less expensive scale, and if the boys should be required to labor upon the farm when necessary, and casually acquire some of the principles of farming, it seems to me that your correspondent would hardly object to that.

If it be true that one pulpit is reported to have asserted that the idea of a vicarious atonement should be kept distinctly in view in all places for the mitigation of any moral evil, then perhaps, it would be better to have nothing but Houses of Correction for punishment, and churches of that stamp for reformation, but as it has not generally been supposed that that doctrine should at all times hold so conspicuous a position, I think your correspondent and myself might come together upon this matter of a Farm School, provided always the unlucky subject of finance was out of the way.

AMICUS.

To the Citizens of Bangor.

At a meeting of Engine Company No. 4, held Monday evening, April 14, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted.

Whereas the connection long existing between this Company and the Fire Department of this city has been recently dissolved, and whereas the Company feels fully sustained by every principle of right, in the position it has maintained, we take this occasion to place some facts before the public before finally separating from the Department.

Our services as Firemen have extended over a period of fifteen years; we have done duty at 150 fires and have turned out at 160 alarms, and at an expense to the city of over $2000 less than the other companies which have served for the same length of time. During that period (with the exception of 12 months) the city has provided us with an engine of smaller capacity than the other companies, thereby subjecting us to the mortification and disadvantage of laboring against odds when placed in a line.

In 1846 the city government granted us a new engine, to be of equal capacity with the other engines then in use. In constructing that machine the Chief Engineer and the building committee strictly adhered to the order as to size, and gave assurance that an order *should be passed establishing that size as the limit for all the engines in the city. But in violation of those pledges the City Government neglected to establish the size of engines for the city, and the next year permitted Engine Company No. 3 to dispose of their engine and procure another of much larger capacity, thereby creating a greater inequality than had ever previously existed. This disregard of former assurances and its consequent effect, viz: placing us on unequal ground when placed in a line as formerly, this Company regarded as an undeserved degradation, and immediately met and passed resolutions refusing under any circumstances to go into a line with the new engine of larger capacity. That on these and on no other conditions would we continue our services as firemen.

First. Had no engineers been present we could easily have extinguished the fire without any other help.

Secondly. If the Chief Engineer had maintained his first order for Nos. 4 and 2 to form a line, the fire would soon have been extinguished.

Thirdly. When the Company became satisfied that it was determined that a line should be formed with Nos. 4 and 6 they immediately gave up their engine, and it was manned by others.

Fourthly. The order to form a line by placing the smaller engine to draw the water 18 or 20 feet and lead it through 600 feet of leading hose up all the rising ground there was between them and the fire into a large engine was unwise and uncalled for.

Fifthly. That it was the changing the position of the engines after this blunder which caused most of the delay and loss of property.

The justice of the principle for which we have uniformly contended, viz: equality of capacity with other engines in the city is admitted by all considerate persons as the true basis of permanency and efficiency in the Fire Department.

By a report from a special committee of the City Government on the fire department during the last season, this principle has been fully approved. Yet that same report places the same committee in no unenviable light, in point of consistency, by containing a recommendation most grossly in violation of the principles to which they so freely gave their approval.

It is indisputable that at least one other Engine Company in the city has ever had its unreasonable demands satisfied (sometimes even before asking) while our reasonable requests have been passed by unheeded and unanswered.

For instance, the city refused to pay for an economically built hose carriage (which we purchased ourselves and run three years) until an unasked appropriation of $100 was made to No. 3 for the same purpose.

It may be true that a generous public spirit added to a love of exciting scenes may lead men to sacrifice much of personal convenience to discharge the arduous duty of firemen; yet it is quite possible for gross injustice and palpable partiality on the part of those served, to diminish the pleasure of such relation.

As this Company have ever considered it the desire of their fellow citizens in establishing a Fire Department, to secure an economical and efficient method of protecting property from the ravages of fire, and believing that this desirable object can only be attained by judicious and impartial action on the part of the City Government, and that the only rivalry which should be encouraged is that of promptness and efficiency, and that the course pursued by the City Government for the last five years has been of an opposite character,—that instead of promoting harmony, efficiency and economy, it has fostered discontent and ill feeling in the department, and rivalry in drawing money from the city treasury,—and, for the present, at least, (owing to the unaccountable vacillating course of those in authority,) there is no prospect of a change of feeling, and seeing no honor to be gained by such rivalry, and believing that the city has as many companies as it ought to support at the PRESENT RATES OF PURCHASING AND REPAIRING ENGINES, Therefore

Resolved, That we do now disband.

*In May 1846, the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department made a report to the City Council recommending the passage of an ordinance establishing the size of engines at two gallons capacity. This report was referred to the joint standing committee on the Fire Department, of which a prominent member of No. 3 was chairman; he refused to make any report until the new No. 3 was nearly finished, (although he was repeatedly requested to do so by the Chief Engineer and others of the Fire Department) then he was in favor of making a report fixing the size of all engines hereafter built to two gallon capacity or about two thirds the size of No. 3.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT. Mr. A. B. Rogers met with a singular accident at the Messrs. Blake's Bakery on Saturday last. He was engaged in kneading a batch of bread, when he suddenly fell upon the floor. He turned his head, erroneously supposing that one of the workmen had struck him, and attempted to rise, but found that one of his legs was unmanageable and upon examination it was ascertained that his thigh bone was broken. Several of the workmen say that they distinctly heard it snap. His physician supposes the bone was defective.—[Portland Adv.

The Wonder of the Age!
BEWARE OF IMPOSITION!
The Only Genuine and Original
IS THE
NORTH AMERICAN ELECTRIC
WASHING FLUID,
For Washing in either Hard or Soft Water.

THIS is the only genuine article to be found in the world and possesses double the power of anything ever discovered, for washing clothes at a trifling expense, doing away with washboards at once. In fact it seems to be the long sought philosopher's stone, or universal solvent; seeming a magical preparation, its operation being of the most astonishing character. A common sized washing may be done with one gill of the Fluid, in less than two hours. It softens and removes the dirt, leaving the articles of the most brilliant whiteness, it being as harmless in its operations as pure water; and clothing will wear much longer than when rubbed to pieces by the common method of washing. This Fluid is a powerful agent, to be used in all cases where soap is required, particularly for cleansing milk utensils, cleaning windows and paint, scouring floors; in short, it is beyond a precedent, as its use is universal in the washing world.

P. S.—All Colored Goods are rendered brighter by being washed in this Fluid. All Woolens are less liable to shrink, and thereby rendered much softer than in the old way of washing.

None genuine unless the Labels contain their Signature.

The above article is warranted by the Manufacturers not to contain soda, lime, camphene, burning fluid, or acids of any kind, but to be purely an alkaline preparation of the most powerful character, possessing more than double the washing power of anything ever discovered, being perfectly harmless in vapor, without possessing the caustic properties of the miserable articles which flood the market, and in many instances disgust the people to that degree that they are unwilling to try a good article, when it really is to be found. The proprietors only ask a fair trial of this article, and are perfectly willing to forfeit any amount for a single failure in any instance where it is used.

He would particularly call attention to a very fine assortment of DWARF PEAR TREES, on Anger's Quince stock, imported from the North of France, and which are very justly in great demand in New England, as they come immediately into bearing and are admirably adapted to garden culture where there is little room to spare.
The collection embracing most of the varieties of the PEAR, APPLE, CHERRY, PLUM, and other Fruits that are worthy of cultivation. Also, Quinces, Gooseberries, Currants, Raspberries, Strawberries, &c. THE GENUINE BALM OF COLUMBIA!

IF you wish a rich luxuriant head of hair, free from dandruff or scurf, do not fail to procure the genuine Balm of Columbia. In cases of baldness it will more than exceed your expectations. Many who have lost their hair for twenty years, have had it restored to its original perfection by the use of this balm. Age, state or condition appears to be no obstacle whatever; it also causes the fluid to flow with which the delicate hair tubes are filled, by which means thousands (whose hair was gray as the Asiatic eagle) have had their hair restored to its natural color by this invaluable remedy. In all cases of fever it will be found the most pleasant wash that can be used. A few applications only are necessary to keep the hair from falling out. It strengthens the roots, it never fails to impart a rich glossy appearance, and as a perfume for the toilet it is unequalled. It holds three times as much as other miscalled hair restoratives and is more effectual.

☞ Caution.—Never buy it unless you find the name of Comstock & Co proprietors, on the wrapper of each bottle or you are cheated with a counterfeit article.

ELEGANT AND INVALUABLE

Articles for the Toilet

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid,

For Restoring, Preserving and Embellishing the HAIR

The following Certificate from Dr Winslow Lewis, one of the most eminent Physicians of Boston, will show the estimation in which it is held by the scientific and learned, being one of many similar ones.

Boston Feb 15 1847

Mr Wm Bogle—Your preparation invented by you for the hair, has been extensively used in my family, and they give it the decided preference over all other compositions of the kind. It invigorates and beautifies the hair and cleanses the skin of all impurities without producing any of those deleterious effects, which are so frequently the result of many well known patented compounds.

WINSLOW LEWIS

It is an indispensable article for the Ladies, as it keeps the hair in place and curl and the skin or parting of the hair free from dandruff and scurf. For children, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

BOGLE'S AMOLE,

A COMPOUND FOR SHAVING.

This delightful article is totally different and are superior to anything yet invented for shaving. This base of it is derived from the Amole or "soap plant" of California, an article used by the natives of that country for washing, and thus, the use of strong alkali, so hurtful to the skin is avoided. Its vegetable and detergent properties have the purest and most nourishing effect on the skin—it soothes and allays irritation, and has a fine, thick, creamy lather, which does not dry on the face. It is a decided luxury to be shaved with this incomparable soap. It is done up in elegant style, calculated either for the "rough and ready" traveller, or the toilet of the most fastidious connoisseur.

Bogle's Hebeatona,

FOR REFRESHING AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION

Eradicating Tans, Pimples and other eruptions of the skin, and rendering it fair, delicate and blooming. It is equally efficacious in protecting the skin from the hot suns of summer, and freezing blasts of winter, and is the most fragrant and delicious article to be found at the toilet of fashion.

All the above articles have stood the test of the strictest investigation and are warranted superior to anything yet invented; but, if not found to prove so on trial the money, in all cases, will be refunded by my Agents. WILLIAM BOGLE Proprietor
